DROGHEDA and
LIVERPOOL STEAMERS.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company having acquired the Steamers, Property, and General Business of the Drogheda Steam Packet Company, trading between the Ports of Drogheda and Liverpool, work the undertaking in connection with their System of Railways via the Port of Liverpool.

Cross Channel Sailings. The Sailings between the two Ports will be maintained, and the times of departure will be published monthly.

Railway Connections. At Liverpool the Steamers berth in the Collingwood Dock, which is adjacent to the Company's North Docks Goods and Cattle Stations, where every accommodation is provided for the expeditious and effectual transfer of traffic. The Exchange Passenger Station, from and to which there is a Regular Service of Express Trains to and from Manchester and the Principal Towns in Lancashire and Yorkshire, is the nearest to the Prince's Landing Stage, where the Steamers will call, with few exceptions, before entering and after leaving the Dock, for the convenience of Passengers and the expediting of Perishable Traffic. At Drogheda the Steamers berth at the River Side Quay, which is within a short distance of the Great Northern of Ireland Railway Company's Station, from and to which there is an excellent service of Passenger and Goods Trains to the North West Districts of Ireland and the Counties of Meath and Louth.

Cattle, Horses, and other Live Stock destined for the Manchester, Wakefield, Leeds, York, Norwich, and other Markets, will be forwarded from Liverpool by a Quick Service of Trains to ensure the earliest possible delivery. At Drogheda there is provided unequalled Stabling for Horses, and Yard accommodation for sorting Cattle, with a constant supply of fresh water. At Windsor Bridge, Manchester, there is a Commodious Cattle Station within three minutes walk of the SALFORD CATTLE MARKET, which is replete with every modern convenience.

Packages, frail or very bulky in proportion to their weight, such as Pasteboard Boxes of Light Millinery or Feathers, Cases of Stuffed Birds or Animals, Stags Heads, Picture Frames, Marble Clocks packed in cases, Light Furniture (packed), Bottles of Medicine, in packages, Parcels containing brittle articles, such as Glass, China, or Porcelain, Violins, Banjos, Guitars, Mandolins, and other similar Musical Instruments (packed), Brass Musical Instruments (unpacked), Photographic Cameras, Electric Light Lamps (ordinary small), are charged one-half more than the above Rates at Company's Risk, and one-fourth more at Owners' Risk.

If any of the above articles are insured, only the Owners' Risk Rate is charged. NOTE.—This Regulation does not apply to Students' Drawings, Hats in hat boxes or crates, Earthenware, Bottles of Wine or Spirits, or to other like traffic, properly packed in hampers or cases, which are charged as Ordinary Parcels. Small Birds, alive, in cases or cages (except Live Pigeons, which are charged one-half more than the above Rates), and a Special Contract in respect to Owners' liability must be signed.

Magic Lantern Slides, Photographic Plates (finished or unfinished), and Gramophone Record Discs, packed in boxes, and Common Clay Pipes are charged one-half more than the above Rates at Company's Risk and the above Rates at Owners' Risk. Stationery (including Bronze Figures), Wax Figures, Musical Instruments unpacked (except Brass), Furniture unpacked, Welsbach Lamps, Incandescent Lamps and Mantles for Incandescent Gas Lights, Saccharometers, Lactometers, Barometers, Thermometers, Phonographs (not on wheels), Photograph Cylinders or Records, Gramophones and Symphoniums, Ships' Compasses, Chronometers, and other delicate Scientific Instruments are only conveyed at Owners' Risk, and the Rates are one-fourth more than the above Rates.

A Risk Note must be signed when the articles are conveyed at Owners' Risk.
